

D A Y 0 1

08:00 - 08:30 Registration & Welcome Coffee

08:30 - 09:00 Opening Remarks

09:00 - 10:15 Session 1: Public Space, Civic Engagement, and Urban Resilience

Track : Theoretical Perspectives on Urban Development, Social Resilience, and Sustainability

Sirin Hassan et al. - Digital Placemaking of Marginalized Communities

Michal Noam-Alon & Efrat Eizenberg - Civic Engagement and Social Resilience Through Social Infrastructure

Vjosa Saraçini - Public Spaces for All: Enhancing Social Cohesion and Urban Sustainability in Skopje

Iva Čukić et al. - Building Resilient Communities through Democratic Urban Planning

Ofri Peretz & Efrat Eizenberg - Civic Engagement in Urban Marketplaces - Labor Unions as Drivers of Resilient Urban Planning in Haifa's Talpiot Market

Aljoshia Shopar - Good Practices of Civic Activism in Building Resilience for Sustainable Urban Futures: Learning from Skopje

10:15 - 10:35 Coffee Break

10:35 - 11:50 Session 2: Inclusive and Equitable Urban Transformations

Track : Theoretical Perspectives on Urban Development, Social Resilience, and Sustainability

Bojana Vukovojac et al. - Spatial (In)Justice and Ex/Inclusion in Urban Development: The Case of Shuto Orizari

Leonora Haxhiu & Sadmira Malaj - Enhancing Urban Sustainability and Accessibility through GIS

Egle Januškienė & Jūratė Kamičaitytė - Increasing Urban Resilience by Involving Children in Planning

Keti Hoxha et al. - The Role of Cemeteries as Excluded Spaces in Balkan Cities

Đurica Marković & Saja Kosanović - Quantifying the Impact of Green Infrastructure

Damjan Balkoski - Achieving Urban Resilience - An Integral Approach to Social and Ecological Sustainability in RNM's Border Towns

11:50 - 13:15 Lunch Break

13:15 - 14:15 Session 3: Community Participation in Housing and Urban Development

Track : Theoretical Perspectives on Urban Development, Social Resilience, and Sustainability

Nadica Angova Kolevska et al. - City Quarters as a Mechanism for Urban Regeneration

Ivana Nikolić & Stefan Kovačević - Community-Centered Approach to Architectural Heritage

Ivana Nikolić & Miloš Gvozdić - Spontaneous Urban Transformation and Its Impact on Planning: Case of Kosovska Mitrovica

Aušra Mlinkauskienė et al. - Interrelationship of Registered and Inventoried Cultural Heritage in Kaunas

Olivera Lekić Glavan et al. - A Study on Social Aspects of Urban Neighbourhoods in Serbia

Endrit Sadiku - Exploring Identity Formation Through Resilience: a case study of the Dodona Neighbourhood

14:15 - 14:35 Coffee Break

14:35 - 15:35 Keynote Speaker Matej Nikšič with Q&A and Discussion

15:35 - 17:20 Presentations of invited Best Practices

Dimitar Samaradjiev - Cultivating Resilience in The Community Garden of Bostanie

Kristin Lazarova - Urban Practice

Ljubo Georgiev - The urban environment as a testing ground for democracy

Ivo Lazaroski & Stefan Zhupan - Arhrid: A Platform for Architectural Discourse and Urban Engagement in Ohrid

Jana Belceva Andreevska - The Role of Independent and Grassroots Movements in City Planning and Politics in Skopje Central Municipality

Stefan Aleksandar Jovanovski - KomshiLOOK Festival: Revitalizing Community Through Art and Collaboration

17:20 - 17:30 Closing Reflections for Day 1

THE FUTURE IS RESILIENT

TRANSFORMATIVE CHANGE THROUGH CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

D A Y 0 2

08:30 - 09:00 Registration & Welcome Coffee

09:00 - 10:15 Session 4: Participatory Planning, Co-Production, and Bottom-Up Urbanism
Track : Governance and Policy: Conditions to Increase Civic Engagement in Urban Development

Isabel Herrle - Co-Production as a Potential for Urban Resilience: case study of Hamburg City Centre
Kefajet Edip - Urban Planning in Skopje and the Inclusion of the Community in Decision Making: case studies of Cair, Butel and Karposh
Hristina Sekuloska & Irena Milojeska - Collective Involvement and Incremental Interventions in Urban Development
Frosina Stankovska et al. - PPGIS Method of Participatory Mapping for Public Knowledge
Grigorios Kalnis et al. - Matrix of Resilience
Ardalan Tayefehhossenlou - Transformative Engagement: Rethinking Public Space as a Collaborative Platform for Community Interaction
Julija Aleksić - The Role of Community Self-Organisation in Urban Neighborhoods
Stefan Lazarevski & Elena Andonova - Activism Within Boundaries: Civic Engagement In Institutionalized Contexts
Ivana Angelova et al. - Civic Initiative And Building Moratoria For Urban Resilience

10:15 - 10:35 Coffee Break

10:35 - 11:50 Session 5: Grassroots and Citizen Mobilization in Urban Development
Track : Governance and Policy: Conditions to Increase Civic Engagement in Urban Development

Dimitar Milev et al. - Community Resilience as a Catalyst for Urban Awareness: Grassrooting in Taftalidzhe, Skopje-
Sanja Avramoska - Deciding On The Measures Implementation For Riverfront Flood Resilience: Actor Mapping And Network Analysis
Sadmira Malaj et al. - Digital Civic Engagement in the Era of Misinformation
Oto Potluka & Frank Othengrafen - Resilient Cities and Social Innovations in Public Spaces
Garika Ujianik Pristiwati - Unfolding Transformative Potential Of Urban Digital Twins For Resilient Neighbourhoods
Oto Potluka et al. - Collaboration Of Foundations With Public Administration In Cross-Border Territories
Miglena Gerasimova et al. - How Investors Can Contribute To Social Sustainability And Resilience Through Transformations Inspired By Citizen Participation And Adaptive Planning

11:50 - 13:15 Lunch Break

13:15 - 14:15 Keynote Speaker Socrates Stratis with Q&A and Discussion

14:15 - 14:35 Coffee Break

14:35 - 15:35 Session 6: Innovations in Pedagogy and Civic Engagement in Planning Education
Track : Innovations in Teaching to Increase the Recognition of Civic Engagement and Citizens' Activities in the Education of Planners

Pavel Veljanoski et al. - Innovative Methodologies In Urban Design Studies: Transgressing Boundaries Between Built Environments And Urban Scenography
Hai Hoang et al. - Multi-Level Interactive Platform for Urban Planning Education
Dane P. Buttner et al. - Leveraging Indigenous Knowledge to Decolonize Planning Theory, Curricula and Practice
Ilaria Geddes et al. - Developing An Innovative Course On Integrated Approaches In The Planning Of Inclusive, People-Centric And Climate-Resilient Cities

15:35 - 15:55 Coffee Break

15:55 - 17:25 Session 7: Case Studies and Best Practices in Urban Transformation
Track : Presentation of and Walkway through Successful Projects

Zlatimira Simeonova - Sustainable Transformations of Public Spaces through Civic Engagement
Sally Nabwani Kawass et al. - Justice in Marginalized Groups
Marija Stamenković - Citizen Engagement in Greening Buildings
Milka Dokuzova et al. - From Reactive To Proactive Citizenship: Data-Driven Approach For Re-Evaluating Public Space Design In Skopje
Ariane Jedlitschka et al. - Experiment Superblocks in East Leipzig: Local Coproduction for Mobility Transformation
Antonis Papangelopoulos & Miltiadis Lazoglou - Informal Networks and Social Entrepreneurship: the case of the municipal market of Kypseli

17:25 - 17:40 Closing Remarks

THE FUTURE IS RESILIENT

TRANSFORMATIVE CHANGE THROUGH CIVIC ENGAGEMENT