Winner European Heritage Awards / Europa Nostra Awards 2020 - LocHal Public Library Tilburg and WAF 2019 Building of the Year - LocHal Public Library Tilburg

Michele Mole, Co-Founder Studio Nemesi, Italy

With the research and testing of new architectural languages, he got the Medal of Merit for Culture and Art of the Presidency of the Italian Republic. The research and professional activities of the firm are reflected through its meticulous work on the form and language underlying it, able to express technological and functional content as well as performance through consistent and poetic writings.

Pepe Gascón, founder of Pepe Gascón Architecture from Spain

Pepe Gascón Architecture is an architectural studio with extensive experience and professional background. His work has been recognized through publications and awards, national and international (Winner of Best of Houzz 2020, 2019, 2018, 2017 and Best on Archilovers 2019, 2018, 2017).

Zsolt Gunther, Co-founder 3h architects, Hungary

Numerous Hungarian and international prizes, invitations to tenders, publications and exhibitions testify to the quality of its output. The firm, which currently employs 15 people, was set up in 1994 by Katalin Csillag and Zsolt Gunther. The office takes pride in both its flair for imaginative concepts and its skill in finding cutting-edge technical solutions. 3h refers to the hardness of a pencil: just as the hard 3h pencil leaves an indelible mark, so the 3h group of architects strives to leave its mark on the world with its designs and buildings.

Iulia Stanciu, Founder STARH, Romania

The office's works were awarded at the architecture biennials and annuals 1996, 1998, 2000, 2004, 2008, 2013, 2014, 2018, they were nominated 4 times for the Mies Van de Rohe award, this year reaching the shortlist with the work of restoration of the Office of the Bucharest OAR Branch (1st competition prize). The projects have been published in numerous specialized magazines, being among the few Romanian offices present in The Phaidon Atlas of 21st Century World Architecture.
